Artificial Eyes.
The first false eye was a metal band which gripped the head and was fitted with a plate to cover the blind eye, covered with leather on which an eye was painted. Then came shells, like halves of nutshells, of gold, silver or copper, enameled or painted to resemble an eye and inserted under the eyelid. As an improvement upon these, artificial eyes were made of porcelain and at last of glass.

TO PUT DOWN REVOLT

RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT MAKING
FRANTIC EFFORTS TO MEET
SERIOUS SITUATION.

ARMY ALONE REMAINS TRUE

IN THE LOYALTY OF THE CZAR'S SOLDIERS LIES THE LAST
HOPE OF AUTOCRACY.

FIRED ON CITY OF ODESSA

MUTINEERS ON THE BATTLESHIP KNIAZ POTEMKINE SENT TWO SHELLS INTO TOWN.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The Russian government, although it has been almost paralyzed by the terrible events at Odessa and the news that the sailors at Libau also have mu-tinied, is making desperate and even frantic efforts to meet the situation and to stamp out the flames of revolution before they can spread to the army, which is now the last bulwark of the autocracy.

With Poland red with the spirit of revolt, the Caucasus already almost in a state of civil war; agrarian disorders spreading rapidly, the whole country profoundly stirred and the intelligent classes solidly arrayed against the government, all conditions seem ripe for the long predicted revolution.

The first act of the government, after dispatching Admiral Kruger's squadron from Sevastopol, was to summon the Kniaz Potemkine, whose mutineers have now been joined by the crews of the two torpedo boats which accompanied it to Odessa, to surrender under the threat of firing upon and sinking the vessel. This was followed by the declaration of martial law at Odessa and Libau and the clothing of the military commanders with plenary powers.

The newly formed council for imperial defense met Thursday night under the presidency of Grand Duke Nicholas and was in session after midnight. Beyond the fact that the temper of the army was considered at length, nothing is known as to what occurred in the council or regarding the decisions at which it arrived.

Honeycombed With Sedition.

Great fear is expressed that many regiments are honeycombed with sedition and there is grave doubt of their loyalty should they be called upon to fire on the revolutionists. Indeed, the most startling stories involving the unreliability of the troops are being repeated in St. Petersburg, but the truth of many of them is more than questionable.

What effect the news of the happenings at Odessa will have upon the troops and the people in general is problematical and is puzzling the press. The precautions taken by the authorities to keep the news from the public have been in vain, the revolutionaries and the Liberals everywhere spreading it by word of mouth and within twenty-four hours it will be known in the uttermost confines of European Russia.

When the news reaches the armies in Manchuria it is bound to create a deep impression. The authorities, however, realizing that it was certain to leak out and that there would be exaggerated versions of it, and perhaps to prepare the way for a public announcement, are now sending some dispatches to the newspapers, but these only contain information not for publication.

At the admiralty, where the temper of the Black sea sailors is known, the orders sent to Admiral Kruger's squadron were by no means unanimously approved. Among others, Vice Admiral Skrydloff openly expressed the opinion that the bluejackets of Kruger's ships would not fire on their comrades on board the Kniaz Potemkine, but that on the contrary they might revolt should they be ordered to shoot.

Would Starve Out Mutineers.

Admiral Skrydloff was of the opinion that the best course would be to allow the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine to remain on board until it had been starved into submission.

In this connection the story is current that the crew of the battleship captured two English ships loaded with provisions and is holding them alongside.

As far as known here, Admiral Kruger, although due at Odessa early Thursday evening, had not arrived up to midnight, and this gave rise to rumors that the crews had actually seized the other ships of the squadron.
Dispatches received from Odessa do not make the situation very clear.

Millions of dollars worth of property, including ships, has been burned or otherwise destroyed. Odessa is terror-stricken, and many, probably hundreds, have been killed or wounded in the street fighting. The fact that the troops and police made no attempt to interfere with the burial of the martyred sailor is considered to be conclusive evidence that they either felt themselves powerless or feared to make the attempt on account of the attitude of the populace.

Under cover of the darkness produced by the dense pall of smoke hanging over the city, it is reported, the mob has begun to sack and plunder. Foreign property has suffered heavily. In naval circles the cause of the mutiny on board the Kniaz Potemkine is attributed principally to the severity of Vice Admiral Chukin's regime. He is a martinet of a most severe type and several of his sailors have already been shot for disobedience. At the time of the mutiny a court-martial was actually in progress at Sevastopol and several of the crew of the battleship had been sentenced by it.

Late dispatches from Libau say that property losses there are considerable and that all the workmen have gone out in sympathy with the action of the bluejackets. Private reports are said to have been received, according to which artillery was employed against the mutineers, but this has not been confirmed, nor is there at hand any statement giving the number of killed or wounded. Four Lake submarine boats are moored at quays in the harbor but a dispatch from Simon Lake says they are under guard and are "yet" undamaged.

The mutiny at Libau, following on the heels of the events at Odessa, gave rise to the impression that it might be the result of a general plot of the sailors, but no connection between these happenings has yet been established. Up to midnight the bluejackets at Cronstadt made no move which would indicate their connection with a plot.

It is reported that the volunteer fleet cruiser Saratoff has been burned at Odessa.

Agrarian riots now extend over almost the entire government of Kherson. There is a similar state of things in the government of Ekaterinoslav, where incendiarism is rife.

SITUATION AT ODESSA

SEMBLANCE OF ORDER HAS BEEN RESTORED, BUT IT IS STILL MOST CRITICAL.

Odessa, June 30.—A semblance of order has been restored, but the situation is still most critical.

The Central railway station was destroyed by fire Thursday evening, many persons being injured and taken to hospitals. The populace is still in a vengeful mood and unless the situation is handled with the utmost care anything may yet happen.

Thus far the only incident reported Thursday evening besides the burning of the Central railway station, is the explosion of a bomb in a private house, by which several persons were injured; but it is impossible to get precise information or permission to visit the actual scenes of conflict.

Startling accounts, which cannot be definitely confirmed, are current regarding Wednesday night's rioting.
In these accounts it is said that no fewer than 1,000 persons were killed.

The troops faced a condition of complete anarchy, thousands of deserters, incendiaries trying to set fire to every building. The soldiers were compelled to adopt the sternest measures and employed machine guns against the mob.

It is alleged that at 3 o'clock Thursday morning a large body of rioters tried to enter the central part of the town by way of Polish hill and that a terrible fusillade was kept up by both sides with rifles and revolvers. It is also alleged that

Hundreds Were Killed and that when the mob tried to ascend the steps near the church of St. Nicholas to reach the boulevard St. Nicholas, Cossacks and other troops fired repeated volleys into the crowd, with terrible results, wagon loads of dead being carried away. Many lives, it is said, were lost in the endeavors of the military to stop incendiarism.

The conflagration extended for over a mile and thousands of tons of railway sleepers and all the trestles surrounding the elevated railroad supporting the elevated railroad were consumed, the troops in the meanwhile firing volleys to compel the rioters to desist. It is stated that 3 officers of police, 10 policemen, 23 Cossacks and 10 infantry soldiers were killed in these encounters.

The funeral of Omitchuk, which has just been held, became an imposing popular demonstration, which fortunately was without disorder. A procession of many thousands of persons followed the body from the harbor along Preobrazhensky street to the military cemetery.

ories of Warsaw the question of ballot, the result being that the workmen decided overwhelmingly against it.

WARSHIP FIRES ON THE CITY.

Kniaz Potemkine Uses Full Charges in Bombardment.

London, June 30.—The Daily Mail prints the following from its Odessa correspondent, timed 10:40 o'clock Thursday night:

"Using full charges, the Kniaz Potemkine opened fire on the city this evening. The first shell struck a house in Nyesjinskaya street and the second fell on a brewery. In the walls of both buildings large holes six yards wide by three yards high were torn. So far there has been no more firing.

"The governor ordered the gas lamps extinguished and the electric currents severed, so that the city is in total darkness.

"Large bodies of troops have arrived. It is reported that there are altogether 10,000 troops in Odessa.

"This afternoon a tugboat which arrived with a commission to investigate the condition of affairs proceeded, flying the Red Cross flag, to the opposite side of the bay and reported. Two warships are lying at the harbor end of one of the main streets opposite Little Fontaine."

Should the report that the Kniaz Potemkine is bombarding Odessa be confirmed the incident probably will precipitate a critical international situation, and the foreign consuls there will almost certainly demand the protection of warships if they have not already done so; and as the treaty of Paris bars any but Russian or Turkish men-of-war from entering the Black sea the Dardanelles question might as a result be revived in a novel and unexpected shape.

In the opinion of the London morning papers the situation could hardly be more serious.

WINS A CLOSE RACE

YALE CREW VICTORIOUS IN THE
'VARSITY FOUR-MILE RACE WITH HARVARD.

New London, Conn., June 30.—The Yale 'varsity crew in the afternoon wrested victory from Harvard in the annual four-mile race on the Thames by the length of an oar. After rowing for four miles with the shells lapping and the graceful prows zigzagging between strokes the Yale boat crossed the finish line three-quarters of a length ahead of the crimson. Yale won by two and one-half seconds.
The blue's time was 22:33 1/4; Harvard's was 22:36.

Such a race has never before been rowed in the twenty-seven years of racing between these old rivals.

Yale got the best of start and held the lead to the end, though Harvard crowded her at times and during the last mile the race was hotly contested and Harvard was crawling up inch by inch when the flag fell at the finish and Yale was declared the victor.

The Elis went to the starting flags confident of an easy victory, but Coach Wray sprung a surprise on Yale and his name is now on the lips of every lover of rowing as the coming rival of John Kennedy, the professional coach at New Haven. Wray came to the Thames three weeks ago an unknown coach. He will go back to Boston as the first professional who has inspired absolute confidence in Harvard. The reason for this is that Yale sent into the race an eight which she claimed was as good as she had ever produced. The lesson of this race is briefly that Harvard has found a great coach who undoubtedly will equal Kennedy of Yale and thus begin a new era in Yale-Harvard boating. Harvard's cry now is "We will lick them next year." To this Yale replies with a very serious wagging of the heads of her rowing advisers, who see trouble ahead.

Harvard won in splendid fashion the first two races, these being the 'varsity four-oared and the freshmen eight. Both crews rowed magnificently.

The four-oared race of two miles went to Harvard by what is officially declared to be a length and the freshmen race went to the same crew by an official length and three-quarters.

I learned the value of this remedy through experience. When I first got Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store I was suffering from severe symptoms of kidney complaint. There was a constant dull aching in my back and the kidney secretions were irregular and distressing. From both these causes my rest was broken at night and in the morning I was usually languid and all tired out. Doan's Kidney Pills made a great change in my condition and after continuing the treatment I was so vastly improved that I felt warranted in recommending this remedy through the local papers. I have never changed my mind about Doan's Kidney Pills and have also found that Doan's Ointment is unequalled for itching and bleeding hemorrhoids. Both these preparations should be known to every sufferer."

SUBORNATION OF PERJURY.

Charge Upon Which New Mexico Man Is Arrested.

Rosewell, N. M., June 24.—Benjamin H. Tallmadge was arrested here during the day on the charge of subornation of perjury. He was taken before United States Land Commissioner Carl Snyder and gave $5,000 bond for his appearance. The warrant was issued by Commissioner Snyder upon complaint of Grosvenor Clarkson, special agent for the government, who has been working in this district several months.

It is reported that this is the first of many prosecutions made to be brought for alleged fraud in land entries and deals in this part of New Mexico. It is further stated that thousands of acres of land in the rich arid belt of New Mexico, the most valuable land in the territory, have been secured through fraudulent desert entries.

REBUKE FOR WALLACE

SECRETARY OF WAR TAFT ACCUSED HIM OF CHANGING HIS POSITION FOR MONEY.

REQUESTED HIS RESIGNATION

HEAD OF THE WAR DEPARTMENT ASKED CHIEF ENGINEER OF THE CANAL TO RESIGN.

Washington, June 30.—Charging him with changing his position over night "for mere lucre" and with being influenced "solely by personal advantage," Secretary Taft in his conference in New York, on June 25, with John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, after administering a severe rebuke to him, requested his resignation on the ground that "public interest requires that you tender your resignation at this moment and turn over the records of your office to the chairman of the commission."

This fact is disclosed in an official statement issued from the office of the secretary of war Thursday, reviewing the relations of Mr. Wallace with the war department and the commission since the latter body's reorganization last spring, quoting the several expressions of the chief engineer of his satisfaction with the entire arrangement, and then gives a verbatim account of the conference between Secretary Taft and Mr. Wallace, in New York, which concluded with the submission to Secretary Taft of Mr. Wallace's resignation. The statement issued Thursday night concludes with the president's letter to Mr. Wallace, dated Cambridge, Mass., June 28, which reads:

"Your resignation as member and chief engineer of the Isthmian canal commission, tendered in accordance with the request of Secretary Taft, which request under the circumstances has my entire approval, is hereby accepted, to take effect immediately. Very truly yours, —THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The statement shows that Mr. Wallace made no complaint against any of his associates.

Prepared the Statement.

Secretary Taft returned to Washington Thursday and went at once to his house where he summoned Mr.

Shouts, chairman of the Isthmian canal commission, and Mr. Nelson Cromwell, secretary of the commission. They entered on the preparation of the statement, which was not ready for publication until late at night, the secretary meantime talking with the president over the long distance telephone at Oyster Bay. The statement was issued by direction of the president, its main features having been agreed on when Secretary Taft saw the president at Harvard university earlier in the week. In his interview with Mr. Taft, Mr. Wallace said that as he understood it the right reserved by the president to remove any member of the commission at any time gave him the same right to retire whenever he saw fit and that he did not consider that he was violating any obligation in resigning to accept the offer of a position which he could not in justice to himself refuse. Mr. Taft took the opposite view and expressed himself very positively and plainly. He told Mr. Wallace that he was bound in honor to continue his duties for a year at least, so that a successor could be carefully selected or prepared for the great duties of the office and that in resigning so precipitately he had violated a sacred allegiance to the government.

If the man who has been selected as Mr. Wallace's successor is a civilian it is safe to assume that he will be tied to the canal as securely as it is possible to bind him and that he will at least not resign so unexpectedly as Mr. Wallace. It is suggested that an army engineer may be placed in charge.

IN BEEF TRUST CASE.

Expected That Indictments Will Soon Be Voted.

Chicago, June 30.—It is expected that either Friday or Saturday indictments will be voted in connection with the inquiry into the beef industry which has been in progress for several weeks. It is said that the chief factor in causing the indictments which are expected, has been the evidence of W. D. Miles, a former confidential employe of Armour & Co. Miles, it is said, left the employ of Armour & Co. because of some disagreement and later, while in Washington, told to President Roosevelt and Attorney General Moody many of the details of the inner workings of the beef business.

The president and the attorney general sent him back to Chicago, and he recently appeared before the grand jury. It is said he disclosed to the jury knowledge of facts and agreements held in various parts of the United States.

Funeral of Mrs. H. Murphy Took Place This Morning—Interment in Evergreen

A large number of prominent politicians and business men from the towns up the M. & L. came down today to assist in the last sad rites over the body of Sheriff Geo. S. Hardy of Walker, whose death was chronicled in THE DIS-PATCH of Wednesday. The services took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the M. E. church, followed by interment in Evergreen cemetery. The funeral was held under the auspices of the Elks and their beautiful service was given at the grave.

Rev. Kuhl, pastor of the People's Congregational church, preached the funeral sermon.

Among those present from out of town were Sheriff Bailey, of Bemidji, and Messrs. Chas. Kinkle, A. L. Cole and M. J. Quam, of Walker.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy were held this morning at 9 o'clock from the St. Francis Catholic church. There was a very large turnout, evidencing the popularity of the lady. The floral contributions were particularly beautiful.
Interment was made in Evergreen cemetery.

MAY LOSE LAND OFFICE

Official From Washington Said to be Getting Busy Changing Boundaries of Land Districts

Important changes in the boundaries of Minnesota land districts are under consideration. George P. Pollock, chief of the special agents' division in the general land office, will leave for Duluth, Crookston and Cass Lake within a few days, and although the exact object of his trip cannot be ascertained at this time, it can be said on good authority that the consolidation of the land office at St. Cloud with the other three districts has been decided on.

The available public lands of Minnesota lie so far north that there is really very little business left for the St.
Cloud office. It is understood that when it was first proposed to merge the land office districts vigorous protests were made from St. Cloud, and there was some sort of showing made relative to several contested timber and stone entries in that district. But all opposition to the change will be unavailing.—

RIVER ON A RAMPAGE.

Mississippi Doing Damage to Property at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, June 30.—The Mississippi river is on a rip-roaring rampage.
An immense flood of water nine feet above the low water mark of the boom company and fourteen feet two inches above the mark in the pond of C. A. Smith & Co., is pouring down from the rain-soaked country along its banks, and holding its full head for hundreds of miles.

The lumbermen declare that the stage of water is the highest in the history of logging operations on the river, but the boom company modifies this by saying that the river in the old days occasionally acted worse, but that the present high water is only equalled by the marking of 1897.

The sawmills have been rendered completely inoperative by the flood.
The people living on the flats are in a state of excitement, fearful that the flood, which has already swept away wood yards, outbuildings, chicken coops and many of their household belongings, may swell in volume until it sweeps away their dwellings.

SOMETHING NEW

Norris and Rowe's Greatest Circus Contains Many Features New to the Circus

In these days of strenuous progress the circus has not been standing still despite the fact that there are many thoughtless persons who carelessly say of all shows, "it's the same old thing." The circus is the same old thing when it comes to being the most popular and profitable form of public amusement.
There is not a game of ball, billiards or cards or anything else in the way of entertainment that may be bought for half a dollar that begins to give the return for the money that the circus does. In this respect it does not matter how small the circus is. But when it comes to such an enormous affair as the colossal circus that Norris & Rowe have obtained, what is there to be said? They have dozens of new features that were not even dreamed of a few years ago, and some of them will be witnessed for the first here and they are well worth seeing. It must be remembered that these shows have a tremendous advantage over the shows of a few years ago.
They are owned and operated by H. S.
Rowe and C. I. Norris. These able managers have the capital and the experience necessary to get anything they want. Again, these men have all earned their splendid fortunes. They are not under the necessity to economize and with their shows it is more a matter of pride than a source of income in exactly the same ratio as the business man who after many years effort has established a name that is a valuable trademark for all that is good.
There is not space at command just now to enumerate their features, to say nothing of their standard acts—they are too many. Time and again we have commended and expressed our unbounded admiration for the earnest young showmen, Messrs. Norris and Rowe and as long as they continue to give us such generous entertainment, just so long will we applaud them. Norris and Rowe's greater circus will exhibit at Brainerd, July 7.

J. W. McCONNELL AS "OTHELLO."

Mr. McConnell, who plays the part of Othello in William Owen's production of that name, has appeared with every great actor on the American stage.
While still a boy he was a member of the great California Stock Co., when that organization numbered among its members, Lawrence Brrett, John Mc-Cullough, Tom Keene, Bella Patenian and Mrs. Judah. He has played with Edwin Booth, Barry Sullivan, E. L.
Davenport, Madame Jansauschek, Adelaide Nelson and Mary Anderson. Association with these great artists has, of course, had its effect upon his acting.
The distinguishing trait in all great actors is authority. They know. Whereas the raw and the crude show their lack of knowledge in their uncertainty of movement and crudeness of delineation the actor tried and seasoned in the great school gives color and severity to everything he does. This is the effect in Mr. McConnell's "Othello" at the Brainerd opera house July 2.

Nervous Dyspepsia

A Disease that Robs You of Every Pleasure in Life—Hungry and Can't Eat—Makes You Nervous, Morose, Irritable and Despondent.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

Overwork the stomach, or subject it to the depressing influence of worry, care or constant excitement, and it gives out. Ask it to digest anything, everything, at any time, and in half the time required, and like an overdriven horse, it balks. The reason for this lies in the close nerve relationship between the brain and stomach, and the fact that the irritation of either organ means the distress of the other. Nature intended the stomach should have regular hours —a time to work, a time to rest—and when you break up this habit you upset the whole arrangement. The stomach nerves become exhausted, the glands refuse to act, the food does not digest—lies heavy, ferments and repeats. There is pain, gas forms, bloating occurs, the heart becomes irregular and a nervous, irritable feeling sets in. This is nervous dyspepsia and Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills its cure.

Mrs. James H. Titus, of 710, Clinton St., Warren, Pa., says:

"Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are just splendid. My stomach bothered me for twelve years—food digesting slowly —heavy after eating. I was fearfully dizzy by spells and very nervous. I tried everything—other medicines, doctors, anything I was told to, but the Nerve Pills I got settled all this. They cured me. I feel well in every way today—no weakness or dizziness, and digestion splendid. I have and will continue to recommend them strongly, as I believe the medicine to be unequalled in its ability to cure such troubles, as it certainly acted like magic with me." 50

THE KIND OF PAINT TO BUY IS Kinloch

Important Memorandum.—The painter is the most important factor in painting.
Kinloch paint, costing only $40.00 per barrel, will last for years. The same paint applied by a decorator, $20.00 per barrel, will last only one year. This is the reason of the good painter's job is $12.00—the poor painter's, $20.00.

We strongly recommend Kinloch Paint. The pure, raw linseed oil is the "life" of paint, and when you buy Kinloch Paint you buy the fresh linseed oil at the same time right out of the barrel. Mix together gallon for gallon—and you have the best paint that brains can make and money can buy. The cost per gallon is less than for inferior grades of "Ready-Mixed" Paint. "Kinloch" is ready to mix. Come and see us—we'll tell you all about "KINLOCH" and save you money—in first cost, and in the cost per year's wear.

EIGHT MEN SHOT DEAD

TAKEN FROM THE JAIL AT WAT-KINSVILLE, GA., AND SLAIN
BY A MASKED MOB.

WORK WAS QUIETLY DONE

LYNCHERS BROKE INTO PRISON.
TOOK OUT NINE MEN, SHOT
THEM AND DISPERSED.

Watkinsville, Ga., June 30.—A mob entered the jail at Watkinsville at 2 o'clock a. m. and took therefrom nine prisoners, eight of whom were shot to death and the ninth escaped only by being thought dead by the mob.

The prisoners taken out and lynched were Lon J. Aycock, white, charged with the murder of F. M.
Holbrook and wife of Oconee county, and seven negroes, Richard Robinson, Lewis Robinson, Claud Elder, charged with the murder of the Holbrook couple; Sandy Price, a young negro, charged with attempted rape on the person of Mrs. Weldon Dooley; Rich Allen, a negro convicted and under sentence of death for murder of Will Robertson, another negro; Gene Yer-by, another negro, charged with the theft of a rifle from Mr. Marshall, and Bob Harris, a negro, charged with shooting another negro.

The mob came quietly into Watkins-ville. There were about fifty to seventy-five men in the crowd. All were heavily masked and no one knew whence they came or to what point they returned.

They went at once to the house of Town Marshal L. H. Allen and quietly called him to the door. As he put his head out of the door he was seized and told that he must deliver the jail keys. He refused and the men put pistols in his face and overpowered him and carried him along. The mob next seized Courtney Elder, a blacksmith, and made him bring his tools along with him. On their way to the jail they were met by A. W. Ashford, a prominent citizen of Watkinsville, who begged the men to desist and let the law take its course, especially pleading for Aycock on the ground that evidence had not been secured to warrant his conviction. He also begged them not to lynch those not charged with capital crimes. They told him that they were cool, sober and determined and that he might as well go back home and go to bed.

Jail Opened by the Marshal.

The jail was then opened by the town marshal under the cover of several pistols and inside the jail the mob held up Jailer Crow and demanded the keys to the cells, which he surrendered after being menaced with guns. Jailer Crow begged hard for the prisoners.

Numbers of the attacking party told him to shut his mouth. They knew what to do, they said, and they were going to clean out the whole jail.
The mob got every prisoner in the jail, except a negro charged with gambling.

The prisoners were carried to a point some 400 yards from the jail and tied to posts by their necks. Ay-cock protested his innocence to the last. While the general belief is that Aycock was guilty, still there were many who did not believe so. Rich Robinson said it was all right, so far as he was concerned, but that three more negroes were in the Holbrook murder. He named Sidney Norris, Jim Taylor and Wiley Durham as the three implicated. These negroes had been in jail before on this charge and had been released. The other prisoners did not open their mouths during their march to their doom.

After the prisoners had been tied to the fence posts, the mob lined up and fired five volleys into their bodies.
All died without a struggle with the exception of Joe Patterson, colored, who was shot several times in the body but was alive after the mob left, and will recover.

Aycock's body was fairly riddled with shot, a great hole was torn through his heart and another through his right breast.

The mob left quietly after doing its work. It is believed the men came from neighboring counties, as the report was brought to Watkinsville in the afternoon that a mob was likely to attack the jail at night. The rumor, however, was not given much credence.

on all day long. Artillery has arrived out of sight of the Kniaz Potemkin.

The battleship landed fifteen men to attend the funeral of the sailor, Omik chuk, and threatened to bombard the town if any of them were arrested.

"The mutineers liberated nine officers, but killed twenty-two.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions, from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good, you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be

Its Peculiarity.

"Did you ever notice anything funny about his conversation?"

"Funny? I should say not. There's absolutely no point to it."

"That's the funny part of it. Having no point to it, how is it that he bores so quickly?"—Philadelphia Press.
